

BVSA Facebook Usage Policy

1. The group or face book page primarily features notices about events; you can post just about anything that's club-related, like photos from your last trip or event and teasers about upcoming activities.
2. Unlike the listserv, you can post personal small gatherings, garage sales or other events and happenings that are not sports related. Feel free to also use the events section to post these kinds of events.
3. Unlike the listserv, you can post comments so it allows for more interaction. Postings on the BVSA page should not include any personal information like addresses or phone numbers.
4. You may not do business solicitation or post spam or jokes. The moderator will delete all inappropriate posts. And please, do not post anything that will potentially promote controversy like politics or religion.
5. If you want to go directly to the club website and get more information about upcoming events, please click on the info icon and you will see the web address under contact information.
6. To join or to view the webpage, please go to www.facebook.com/bvsa
